

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry propaganda piece days before the election, without affording opponents the opportunity to air a piece with an opposing viewpoint (say, Michael Moore's Fahrenheit 911) is a blatant example of abuse of the public airways. Sinclair must be blocked from using the public airways in an obviously partisan, non-evenhanded manner.